

GLOBAL PACIFIC
FINANCIAL SERVICES LTD.

Welcome to Financial Literacy Month 2021!

Submitted by Rica Zara on October 28, 2021 - 4:53pm

Get Started with Financial Literacy Month 2021

On behalf of Advocis, I would like to welcome you to Financial Literacy Month 2021. This year, we ensure that you are following us on Facebook, Instagram to receive notifications as this content is released throughout November. Financial Advice For All website, including:

Interested in learning more about what we've got planned? Check out our quick access to Financial Advice For All, please click the link below: Interviews by Advocis members and guest experts national press release, or read on:

- Interviews with Advocis members on Instagram Live

As a member of Advocis, you are likely familiar with our hugely-popular Coffee Talks webinar series. This year, Advocis will kick off Financial Literacy Month on November 2nd with a special presentation from Dr. Supriya Syal, Deputy Commissioner of Research, Policy, and Education, Financial Consumer Agency of Canada (FCAC).

Dr. Syal will present FCAC's National Financial Literacy Strategy for 2021 - 2026, and offer insights into how this important plan can impact you as a financial advisor.

An archive of the talk will be posted on Financial Advice For All.

Released 1-2 times per week during each week of November. our member Our Instagram presence has been growing at Advocis, and we are To provide members with an asset for Financial Literacy Month that we Roblox is a massively-popular online platform where users can create their own games and experiences. It is played by hundreds of millions of kids (primarily ages 7 - 13) across Canada and around the world, making it an

We hope that both the new and existing resources on Financial Advice For All will be a valuable asset to you and your practice as you continue to work with your clients to engage them on the vital issue of financial literacy. Roblox is a massively-popular online platform where users can create their own games and experiences. It is played by hundreds of millions of kids (primarily ages 7 - 13) across Canada and around the world, making it an

All byline content published on Financial Advice For All financial site and quiz If you have any questions, please contact communications@advocis.ca. along with the Roblox game, a special course mobile notifications turned on for your Instagram app - you'll get pinged the Roblox game, a special course reading the program as the best way to be as well as friendly to adults in- on the Roblox game, a special course

Source URL: <https://globalpacific.ca/bulletins/advocis/2021-10-28/welcome-financial-literacy-month-2021>

The kit is available for download on Financial Advice For All.